

Canal Vox Montréal, Québec

Canal Vox is a forward-looking television service dedicated to building strong, stimulating relationships with the community. Canal Vox is a Québec public access television service available exclusively to subscribers of Vidéotron (subsidiary of Quebecor Media). Vidéotron is an integrated communications company engaged in cable television, interactive multimedia development, internet access services, cable telephony, and wireless telephone service.

AEL designed, supplied and installed a complete broadcast system which includes Miranda distribution and conversion gear, Miranda Kaleido multi-room multi-image processor and a Miranda VertigoXG SD/HD graphics system.

System Solution:

- Miranda Kaleido Multi-Image Processor
- Miranda VertigoXG SD/HD Graphics System
- Miranda Distribution and Conversion

