

Confederation College – Centre for Applied Media Production (CAMP) Thunder Bay, Ontario

Confederation College created a Centre for Applied Media Production, Canada's innovative media arts education facility. AEL designed, supplied and installed systems in this state-of-the-art teaching facility.

CAMP is the convergence of digital integrated technology and the best in program design, faculty expertise and learning strategy. Through a $2.8 million dollar capital investment in Film Production, Television Production and Multimedia Production, CAMP prepares knowledgeable, creative and skilled graduates to meet the demands of Canada's communications and entertainment world.

The skills and knowledge of Media Production graduates support synergies between technology, culture and business, three rapidly growing sectors identified by the Ontario Ministry of Finance in 2005. Confederation College has created the Centre for Applied Media Production (CAMP) in recognition of the importance of the College's media-related programs, their significant accomplishments and their impact on meeting increased global skills needs. CAMP is committed to developing its Ontario College Diploma Programs in Film Production, Broadcasting-Television Production and Multimedia Production.
